NEWS OF COUNTY TOWNS.

AIRLIE.

Percy Lewis hauled out a new windmill last week.

The Lehman boys delivered 200 oak posts for Bura Tarter.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Gross spent Saturday night with his son's family.

R. A. Hastings bought a fine driving horse of the Ray boys a few days ago.

Professor and Mrs. W. J. Hooker, of Eugene, are visiting his parents near here.

Sheep shearing is about over. The yield was good, but the price is rather below what it ought to be.

P. Hadley took a load of potatoes to Independence, Wednesday. He received 90 cents a bushel for them.

"Cricket" Bevens brought in about 3000 pounds of wool, Wednesday. But little wool has been sold here this season.

W. P. Weir arrived here Wednesday with a band of fine Hereford cattle, which he will take to the stock show at Corvallis.

George Conn, Gus Lindeman and Andrew Hannum will leave for the mountains the last of the week on a fishing expedition.

Mr. Evans got his boot-heel caught between a roller and the frame a few days ago and came near losing a foot. As it is, he has a badly sprained ankle.

Mrs. Cornelia Taylor was brought up from Monmouth on the motor last Saturday and was taken to her home. She is suffering with a cancer, and no hopes are entertained of her recovery.

BUTLER.

Glenn Butler went to Portland last week.

There is to be a picnic at Sheridan, June 8.

Ira Yocom was a Sheridan visitor, Saturday.

D. T. Hodges and two sons went to Sheridan, Saturday.

Ed Harmon has gone to Willamina to work in the sawmill.

Mrs. Joel Flanery went to Willamina, Saturday evening.

W. Thomas, of Salmon River, passed through here last Tuesday.

John Waugaman and son, of McMinnville, visited at Lee Rowell's last week.

Claud Hussey, of Sheridan, is working for Joel Flanery at the Butler store.

Mrs. D. T. Hodges visited her daughter, Mrs. Fred Auer, at Gopher last week.

William Ray and daughter, Abbey, went to Portland last week to meet Mr. Ray's sister, who is coming from the East for a visit.

FALLS CITY.

M. Inman is having his house painted.

I. L. Stoddard has had his house painted and a neat porch built.

Vick Bros. have put a nice pair of hay scales near their creamery.

Several Falls City people went to Black Rock for an outing last Saturday. They report a fine time.

Mrs. C. Pugh, A. N. Robinson, H. W. Baneroff, Charles Vick and Joseph Floria were Dallas visitors, Tuesday.

INDEPENDENCE.

J. M. Stark was a Salem visitor, Monday.

Mrs. P. H. Drexler was a Salem visitor, Tuesday.

Mrs. T. D. Campbell and children, of Portland, are visiting here.

The women of the Presbyterian Church will give their annual Rose Fair, June 14.

Miss Myrtle Scroggs, who has been teaching in Olympia, Wash., is at home for the summer.

K. C. Eldridge was in Salem, Monday, completing arrangements for opening a creamery at that place.

The ladies of the Methodist Church served dinner in the Hurley building, Tuesday evening, and realized a neat sum for their efforts.

Mrs. M. G. Goff is visiting in Portland, where she will meet her daughter, Miss Vena, who spent the winter teaching in Montana.

A reception was given at the home of Mrs. S. B. Walker, Saturday evening, by Mrs. Walker, Mrs. G. W. Conkey and Mrs. D. A. Hodge, in honor of Mrs. R. C. Craven, of McMinnville. Dainty refreshments were served, and a pleasant evening was spent by all present.

MONMOUTH.

David Hampton is fitting up fine large rooms in his new lodging house.

The Canning and Evaporating Company began work on the foundation for the new cannery building,

Monday. The lumber is expected here this week.

Mrs. A. N. Poole returned home last Friday from a year's stay at Newport.

Mrs. A. Taylor, who is fatally afflicted with cancer, is at home again. No hope is entertained of her recovery.

James Herren, mother and sister moved to Salem, Tuesday. He was janitor at the College for over four years.

Mrs. Cal Kramer, of Falls City, visited friends and relatives in Monmouth last week. She went from here to Corvallis.

Jesse DeWitt, of Black Rock, has been appointed a Forest Inspector for southern Oregon, at a salary of $150 per month. He is a Monmouth boy, a son of Mrs. J. T. DeWitt. He left for Grant's Pass, Saturday.

Owing to some accident in the telephone office in Independence, H. Drewey, the lineman, has had to work day and night on the switchboard. The instruments are in order again, and Mr. Drewey will resume his work on the line. He is superintendent of the work here now.

Mrs. Mahala Sloan died of appendicitis Tuesday, June 4, after an illness of only one week. She was 57 years old. She left a husband, two sons, two daughters, and a great many relatives and friends to mourn their loss.

The funeral was conducted in the Christian church, of which she had been a member, and the remains were laid to rest in the cemetery south of town. C. E. Wigmore preached the funeral sermon.

The rural mail carriers met in Monmouth, June 2. Benton, Linn, Yamhill and Polk counties were represented. A large delegation was present. Messrs. Huber and Parker, the Monmouth carriers, entertained the entire delegation at dinner. The subject of good roads was discussed at the meeting, also the practice of publishers in sending out catalogues and circulars wrapped in large and inconvenient rolls. It was the sense of the meeting that this manner of wrapping publications should be prohibited.

PERRYDALE.

Dick Duignan, of Portland, visited his parents over Sunday.

Mrs. Hoffman, of Carlton, is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Conner.

The protracted meetings held at the Christian church closed Sunday evening.

An interesting program is being prepared for Children's Day, to be observed Sunday evening, June 16.

The members of the Ladies' Auxiliary and invited guests will be entertained Friday evening at the home of Hon. D. L. Key.

Laura Doty, who for several years has made her home with her aunt, Mrs. E. C. Key, has gone to Yaquina to reside with her father.

POLK.

Everybody busy these days. Some cherries are ripening.

Crops will be short unless it rains soon.

Windover's are building a large barn.

David Peters is making good headway on his new house.

Frank Friesen, on the Peters place, is building a large cow-barn.

The ground has been graded for the railroad switch and the ties have been unloaded here.

Rev. M. M. Horsch, from Cucumonga, Cal., has been holding protracted meetings in the Meannote church the past week. From here he goes to Menno, Wash.

F. F. Kiewer, a former resident of Polk, and recently of Sunnyvale, Alberta, is looking around for a location in this vicinity. On his way here from Alberta he stopped in Montana and Idaho, but says he feels more at home in old Oregon. His wife stopped with her parents in Montana.
